Dear Saints

Tsunami Word

There is currently a word circulating about an imminent physical tsunami – a natural disaster sent by God to judge Cape Town for the sin of the city. This word is spreading fear in the Church of Cape Town and South Africa. We have taken this word to the Lord and asked if we can expect a tsunami (ocean wave greater than say 12 m) to hit Cape Town in the next year and we have heard: 'No'.

That said, we wish to affirm that many, many of God's people have recently and in the past been seeing visions and dreaming dreams of tsunamis washing over Cape Town but we contend these are of a spiritual nature. What is the appropriate preparation? Find yourself in the secret place, get up to higher ground in the Spirit, deepen your intimacy with the Lord. Repent and rest in the Lord (Isaiah 30:15-16) so that you will be prepared to recognise and ride the wave of glory and God-change, He plans to bring through Cape Town and South Africa. We hope to dispel fear and encourage faith in this bulletin - faith to believe His promises to the city and encouragement to obey Him. May we repent of the sin of unbelief and apathy.

Should a physical tsunami indeed destroy the Cape Peninsula coast within the next year, the members of The Recording Room responsible for this bulletin will publicly apologise on this same platform that we publish this word. As with all prophecy, we encourage you to take this word to the Lord, weigh it and hear from Him for yourself to settle any doubt. A double minded man will receive nothing from the Lord (James 1:7-8).

Shalom

Note: According to scientists there is a 100% chance of a tsunami hitting the South African coast in the next 500 years, the issue we wish to address is the imminent nature of this tsunami word, some saying September/ October 2015, others "soon".
